

Sixty-Five Patriots Asked To Take One Step Forward Please

Newmarket Doctors and Nurses Volunteer Time For Red Cross Blood Donors' Clinic On Feb. 23

Sixty-five volunteers wanted for an important war job!

The Red Cross mobile blood donors' clinic comes to Newmarket on Tuesday, Feb. 23, and a minimum of 65 male donors are needed to make the visit worthwhile.

Names are beginning to reach the registration depots listed elsewhere in this issue. More names are still needed. Each donor will be notified by mail of the exact hour of appointment.

Richmond Hill has had its first clinic. Aurora has its first clinic next week. Bradford, Barrie and practically every town in the Toronto district are holding a clinic.

The blood is processed at the Connaught Laboratories and sent to the fighting fronts, where it is used to counteract shock and to save lives in myriad ways.

The clinic will last from 9 to 12:30. Mrs. S. J. Cooper brings the mobile clinic to Newmarket the previous evening and sets it up in readiness.

Newmarket doctors, with Dr. L. W. Dales in charge, ten Newmarket nurses, with Miss Aileen Arnold in charge, and ten other women, who will do clerical work and serve lunches, will staff the clinic.

Newmarket And Aurora Lose Bandmaster Robert Moore

WM. GREIG TAKES CHARGE OF NEWMARKET BAND AS BANDMASTER ENLISTS

Bandmaster Robert Moore has been granted leave of absence from the Newmarket Citizens' band and the Aurora Boys' band for the duration of the war. Mr. Moore is at present at Rockcliffe, where he is organizing an R.C.A.F. women's division band.

Mr. Moore has been bandmaster of the Newmarket Citizens' band for the past four or five years and has led the Aurora Boys' band since it was founded. Last summer the Aurora Boys' band won the Lions International contest and a prize of $500.

Asst. Bandmaster Bill (Wm. C.) Greig is leading the Newmarket band during Mr. Moore's absence and has taken over the Aurora Boys' band for the present.

RECEIVE INCREASE

There was an increased flow of money on Main St. last weekend as Davis Leather Co. employees rejoiced in a ten cents an hour increase in wages and a payment which made the new rates retroactive to the middle of November.

WILL TEACH BOYS

There are five or six vacancies for boys between ten and 16 years to join the band training class of the Newmarket Citizens' band. Boys interested should contact Bandmaster Wm. C. Greig or Secretary Austin Brammer by next Monday.

V.O.N. DOES GRAND JOB AT BARRIE, HUNTSVILLE

Barrie's 19th annual V. O. N. meeting was held last week, showing a total of 2,403 home visits and an attendance of 678 at the well-baby clinics. Fifty percent of the visits were made to mothers and babies. Apparently the V. O. N. in Barrie doesn't go into the schools.

An idea of what the V. O. N. might accomplish in Newmarket can be gathered from the following report of the Huntsville nurse.

Following is the report of Miss Catharine Murray, V.O.N., presented at the annual meeting of the Huntsville Victorian Order committee held on Jan. 18:

It gives me much pleasure to present to you interested friends of the Victorian Order of Nurses a report of the nursing activities for the year 1942, this being the 19th year that the Huntsville branch has functioned as an individual nursing unit. This will be primarily a report of the untiring efforts and efficient work of my predecessor, Miss MacArthur.

1942 was a critical year for all. "On the Alert" was the watchword of our nation, and we as an organization must make this our watchword, too, if we are to help our country to the utmost. As public health nurses we must be alert to every opportunity which presents a chance to further the cause of the preservation and promotion of health both in our bedside nursing and preventive work.

Our contribution to the war effort is to nurse the sick and teach health and nutrition to the people of this town; for healthy men and women mean more working power and healthy wives and children relieve mental strain from our men on active service.

Victorian Order work calls us into all types of homes. We visit those in comfortable circumstances, also the families that have the necessities of life and those in the low-income group who do not always have the essentials to maintain a healthful standard of living. Our services are available to all who need us, as the fee for each individual case is adjusted to meet the family income.

During the year 2,359 visits were made to 285 patients.

Nursing care to maternity and medical cases accounted for 1,045 of our visits made, for bedside nursing is our primary function. We give care to the acutely ill, to pneumonia, influenza, cancer and chronic cases. Mothers and babies receive nursing care and someone in the home is instructed in establishing and maintaining the necessary routine which must go on between the nurse's visits. Health teaching is part of our everyday routine while caring for the sick.

The importance of preventative work has for many years been recognized as a decisive factor in combatting the maternal and infant morbidity and mortality rate. Only those associated with the family know what the loss of a mother means, and the one who tries to comfort a mother when she has lost her baby realizes the intensity of this grief. That such tragedies be kept at a minimum requires a continual concentration on preventative work. Three hundred and eighty-six of our visits were

WHO DONATES TO THIS SALE HELPS TWICE

"How much am I offered for these boots and skates? How much for this table? How much am I offered to help the children of Britain and Russia?"

Auctioneer F. N. Smith is giving his services next Wednesday and Thursday in the town hall to dispose of a long list of useful and valuable articles which the people of Newmarket and district are giving for this sale.

It is not too late to add to the list of articles which will be sold. Articles which are not needed in one home are often needed in another. An extra tea-kettle, stove or relish dish may be of no use to one person, but valuable to someone else.

Persons who help with this "white elephant" sale are not merely helping to provide funds for war work. They are putting back into use articles which will have precious supplies of new civilian goods, and make more labor and materials available for war work.

Frank Denison and Miss Rae Eves have contributed valuable oil paintings as special prizes. Mrs. Wm. White has given a Royal Crown Dual fruit compartment.

FUND TO AID RUSSIA GOES OVER $2,400 MARK

"Well done, Newmarket," smiled General Chairman H. E. Lambert of the Newmarket Canadian Aid to Russia fund as he handed his list to The Era and Express this week.

Subscriptions continue to reach the Newmarket committee and the total now exceeds $1,500, as shown by the list of subscriptions shown below. Several packages of razor blades and some razors have been left with the chairman and these have been sent on to headquarters.

The following letter has been received by Mr. Lambert from W. R. Ingram: "We appreciate very much your donation of razors and razor blades to the Canadian Aid to Russia fund. You can rest assured that these will go forward at the earliest possible date, for we know they are badly needed in the hospitals in Russia."

The Lions club was delighted this week to receive $10 in American currency, which is equal to $11 Canadian, from a former resident now residing in New York state. The following letter accompanied the remittance, which was sent to T. F. Doyle: "Lions Club, Newmarket, Ont.: Because my husband had been so interested in the good work done by your club along child welfare lines, am sending a donation in his memory. If you care to divide it between the Aid to Russia fund and your own child welfare work, that will be left to your discretion."

It was signed by Mrs. Helena Haskett Hance, Macedon Centre, N. Y.

"The club is indeed very grateful to Mrs. Hance not only for her timely remittance but the expression of appreciation covering the service work the club is doing," said Mr. Lambert.

Mr. Lambert said that direct gifts of $900 from Newmarket people made the total over $2,400. Amount previously reported $1,331.87

BOARD PARES SCHOOL ESTIMATES FOR YEAR

Newmarket public school board met on Monday evening to discuss the public schools budget for 1943.

The board discussed a recommendation of Inspector C. A. Lapp that double desks in the primary room at the Alexander Muir school, the only double desks remaining in any of the schools, be replaced with tables and chairs. The inspector urged that the change be made now if tables and chairs were obtainable. It was stated at the meeting that the cost would be at least $400.

The board also had to take into account increases and cost of living allowances granted to the staff last year.

Secretary R. L. Pritchard stated that the board had thoroughly scrutinized every item with a view to making the total as small as possible.

The requisition will be before the next meeting of the town council. The final payment of $1,821 on a public schools debenture was made in 1942.

PETERS' FIRST O. H. A. GAME IS A BRUISER

By BILL HASKETT

There was more excitement down at the Newmarket ice palace Thursday night than any other night this year.

The reason. Orillia military camp came to town and engaged in the wildest duel that fans have seen since the season opened.

The visitors went home on the short end of a 2-1 score, but they really put up a good fight (both ways) before they left for their home town. There were ten penalties handed out. Two of these were for fighting, after a free-for-all broke out in the third period.

All the scoring was done in the first few minutes of the game. McMaster opened with a beautiful goal on a pass from Tommy Stewart. Rome in the Orillia line didn't have a chance on the play. It was a bullet-like shot that just nipped the upper left-hand corner of the net.

Gordon scored Orillia's lone goal on a pass from Curran. Nicholl scored the winning goal, unassisted. This happened at the 6:15 mark of the first period. There was no scoring from then on.

The game was played on soft ice. A Newmarket referee, Bob Peters, handled the game, and did a good job.

Bob Bangay was missing from the Redmen line-up. Coach MacDonald led Johnny Frew to take his place. This was the first time that local fans have had a chance to see him this year.

Newmarket: goal, Hughes; defence, Shaw and Heenan; centre, Nicholl; wings, Stewart and McMaster; subs, Frew, N. Bangay, Nesbitt and Wheeler.

Orillia: goal, Rome; defence, Tagliabracce and Curran; centre, McKay; wings, Stephenson and Craig; subs, Gordon, Reid, Normoyle and Wagner.

THEY WIN AGAIN

Continuing their winning streak, Newmarket Redmen handed Orillia Basic Training Centre a 14-4 defeat at Orillia on Tuesday evening. Nine of the 14 goals were scored in the final period.

BARRIE LIONS CUBS DEFEAT SUTTON KIDS

Barrie eliminated Sutton juveniles at Barrie last evening in the second of a goals to count on the round game.

The final score was 4-1. Barrie scored three times in the first period. In the second period both teams went scoreless, while in the third, each team scored once. Roger O'Dell was the marksman for the Sutton team, scoring unassisted.

"Happy" Emms' well-trained Barrie Lions juveniles handed the Sutton entry in the juvenile playdowns a 7-0 defeat at Sutton arena Monday night before a fair crowd.

The visitors showed the results of clever coaching and although they scored only once in the first and final period they out-played the Sutton team during the second stanza.

After 18 minutes had elapsed the visitors opened the scoring when Lowe took a pass from Bowen right in front of the net.

Four minutes after the second period had begun Murray Richardson made it 2-0 on a shot from the wing. Needham, a minute and a half later, made it 3-0 when he scored from a scramble in front of the net. Lowe scored again, this time on an assist from Needham. Murray Richardson made the count read 5-0 at the 15-minute mark.

Keith Dunne, Sutton defence-man, was handed a penalty for tripping. Nixon scored on an assist from Richardson at the 18-minute mark.

In the final period play was even and penalties were handed out for high stick work to Hamilton and Clark of Barrie and to Andy Lonergan, Sutton wingman. L. Clark scored at the eight-minute mark. Although both teams missed on several occasions what looked like certain goals, there was no further scoring.

Although eclipsed by seven goals the Sutton entry didn't once give up trying and looked well in defeat. The game was well handled by Cec. Carpenter.

Sutton: goal, Bill Holder; defence, Reg. Sedore, Keith Dunne; centre, Geo. Holborn; wings, Andy Lonergan, Welch; alternates, Joe Holborn, Dave Burrows, Jack Oliver, Chas. Brooks and Leon Oliver.

Barrie: goal, Lumbley; defence, C. Cook, B. Hamilton; centre, A. Bowen; wings, B. Lowe, Doug. Peacock; alternates, D. Clark, Max Richardson, Murray Richardson, J. Nixon, L. Clark, D. Needham.

Public School Board Endorses V.O. Nurse Plan In Newmarket

Dr. Case States Nurse In Schools Wouldn't Prevent Sickness But Would Build Better Generation

The public school board passed the following resolution at a meeting on Friday evening: "Moved by R. L. Pritchard, seconded by Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards, that the board is unanimously in favor of the appointment of a V.O. nurse for health services in the public schools."

The board took this action after receiving the following letter from Mrs. H. E. Gilroy, secretary of the Home and School Association:

"The Home and School Association request the support of the Newmarket public school board in the matter of the proposed Victorian Order of Nurses nursing services now in debate by the town council.

"For more than two years the Home and School Association has been studying the benefits of public health nursing services in other municipalities, and feel that the benefits of these services could be extended to include our elementary schools by a sympathetic attitude on the part of the school board.

"The public school enrolment at the present time is 538. Pupils' non-attendance is a serious loss not only to the pupils themselves but to the taxpayer who supports the schools and contributes to their maintenance whether a full attendance is continued or not.

"Although there has not been an epidemic of disease since mention of health services was begun, epidemics are possible, and it is felt, quite probable.

"Check-ups of children under par physically, control of infectious diseases, eye and ear examinations, dental examinations, and many other health measures are within the scope of the work of a health nurse.

"This association feels it is the right of the present generation of school children to receive the benefits of health supervision, for the present good, and for the future, as so much will be expected of them in the inevitable period of reconstruction to come.

"The Home and School Association trust that the Newmarket public school board will give its serious attention to this matter and grant its approval and support to the undertaking."

The chairman, Rev. J. A. Koffend, said that he had appeared before the town council as chairman of a citizens' committee not as a member of the public school board. As a member of the board, he said, he felt that it would be a good thing for the board to share in the payment of the V. O. N. budget so that the board would be entitled to a voice in what the nurse should do.

"The V. O. N. nurse is controlled by a committee," said Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards. "As operated in other communities, the school board purchases a certain part of her time. That would give us more influence, but I think that we would have a voice even if we were to give only moral support."

"A public health nurse goes into the schools without the consent of the school board," said Dr. G. E. Case. "The M. O. H. can send her in. A V. O. N. nurse can go into the schools without the consent of the board of health."

"Moral support is one thing, but what is the value of the board and council both giving money?" asked L. H. Bovair.

Dr. Case said that if the board were going to make a grant, the council would want to know definitely the amount of the grant before making its own grant.

"The money all comes out of the same pot," said Mr. Bovair. "I have no objection to voting a grant if it would help," said R. L. Pritchard.

"It is not the right thing to take the matter out of the hands of the council," said Frank Bothwell, suggesting a "nominal donation."

Queried by the chairman, Mr. Koffend, all members of the board expressed themselves in favor of the V. O. N. project.

Mr. Bothwell said that there would be complaints from some parents if the nurse started going into homes. "Perhaps we have been fortunate, but we have been very free from epidemics," he stated.

"We have 20 out of one room, 16 out of another today with sickness," said Principal H. A. Jackson.

"A nurse wouldn't prevent that," said Mr. Bothwell.

"A nurse won't prevent sickness but she will make a better generation," said Dr. Case. "A nurse's work is educational. It will take ten years to see a difference."

Mr. Pritchard and Mrs. Edwards moved that the board grant $125 toward the V. O. N. budget. Dr. Case said that he would sooner the board voted $500 as part of the total of $1,250 which the town was being asked for. Dr. Case said that he would favor voting $1,000 if it were necessary in order to assure having a nurse.

Mr. Pritchard stated that he intended the $125 to be part of the town's $1,250, not additional to it.

It was then agreed to withdraw the $125 grant motion and instead to pass a resolution supporting the principle.

PUBLIC LIFE

Some men have, as a result of native aptitude or hard-won experience, a great understanding of public affairs. They seem to have a consciousness of their trusteeship, and to realize the importance of deliberation and caution, and of parliamentary rules of procedure, in reaching wise community decisions. In a good many years of watching public bodies at work, not only in this community but in city communities as well, we don't think that we ever saw a better chairman than W. H. Eves as the presiding officer until recently of Newmarket's public school board.

It was a pleasure to watch Mr. Eves conduct a meeting. He did not try to dominate his board. He made sure that every member of the board had a chance to voice an opinion before he asked for a decision. He didn't mind expressing his own opinion, but he usually made it clear that it was only his own opinion and that he did not wish it to prevail if others disagreed with him. In short, his effort was to draw out of the board the wisest collective decision. Mr. Eves has now retired from the board, "full of honors."

IT'S YOUR HOSPITAL

The annual meeting of the York County Hospital Association takes place tomorrow evening. This is the one annual opportunity which the citizen has to show interest in the hospital other than by being a patient there.

It is said that in order to vote at these meetings a person should be a member of the Association at a fee of one dollar per annum. This is a dead by-law, and genuinely interested persons are invited to attend and participate in the annual meeting without having to go through any preliminaries, states Acting Secretary P. J. Tod.

The hospital is for the people of Newmarket, Aurora and all of northern York county, and it is for the people who depend on the hospital to find ways and means of overcoming the congestion at the hospital and so increasing its usefulness.

Other annual meetings have brought out splendid financial reports and the members of the board are to be congratulated on the good business management which they have given. The late J. J. McCaffrey, the secretary-treasurer for so many years, will be missed at this year's meeting, but his work is still there.

The board has built a solid financial edifice which will warrant expansion when the people of northern York county feel that the time has arrived.

SERVICES OR LOWER TAX RATE

Newmarket town council will be striking the tax rate for 1943 shortly. There are always two schools of opinion in the council on this subject. When it would be possible to move the tax rate downward—and this may be such a year—some councillors would instead give the public needed services or improve the town's financial position looking forward to such services.

Reeve F. A. Lundy spoke in favor of a resolution in York county council last week asking an amendment to the Municipal Act that would permit municipalities to levy money now to be spent on post-war rehabilitation and reconstruction.

It is possible for municipalities to do quite a bit in the way of building up reserves within the present framework of the Municipal Act by writing off physical assets and uncollected but collectible taxes. Newmarket could also quite properly put the 1942 surplus from its water and light department ($7,391 in 1941) in a public utilities bank account for use in improving the water and electric systems in post-war years, instead of using it in reduction of the 1943 rate.

Mr. Lundy is chairman of the town council's finance committee. If he is still of the same mind as he was when speaking in county council, he could urge his committee to set aside the 1942 water and light surplus as money that should not go into the town treasury, and then to strike the tax rate. If it should be more than the 41 mills of 1942 the citizens will never be in a better position to pay taxes than they are this year.

Mr. Lundy is, in our opinion, on sounder ground, and is being a more forward-looking public man, more of a statesman, when he takes the position that he did take in county council than when he talks, as he has done several times of late, of the necessity of "taking the burden off real estate, off the property-owner."

As yet we have been unable to find this burdened Newmarket property-owner who is so anxious to have his taxes lowered. We own property ourselves and we know and talk with many, many citizens who own property. We talk about lots of things, but we have no consciousness of any of these property-owners clamoring for lower taxes. They do, however, often talk about improvements and services which they think desirable and necessary.

We don't feel that the property-owners of this town are to be pitied. Their assessments are low, the tax rate is moderate. They own property because they choose to own it. They bought it because they thought it cheaper to buy their own homes than to rent from someone else. At the moment, home-owners are mighty glad that they had the foresight to buy. As for landlords, people who own more than one home, they bought or held a second (or third) home because they thought it a good investment, and it is still a good investment. The fact that they can't take advantage of the present easy money situation and raise their rents doesn't turn their properties into poor investments. Even Victory bonds pay only three percent interest.

Property-owners are not to be pitied. They are fortunate to own property. Tenants too pay taxes. When a man rents a house he pays the taxes. His rent includes the taxes, and even though he doesn't deal directly with the town, and his rent doesn't go up and down with the tax-rate, he is just as much a taxpayer as his neighbor who owns a house. When a town provides better schools, better services, better pavements and sidewalks, public health services, that benefits everybody, and the costs are very fairly divided through real estate taxation. The town becomes more desirable to live in, property-values increase and rents go up. Everybody benefits, everybody pays.

Another point that is often forgotten in this reiteration of the plight of the poor, poor property-owner is that the town has other sources of revenue than real estate taxation. The Newmarket 1941 auditor's report shows that fines, licenses, dog taxes, sale of property purchased at tax sale, miscellaneous revenue, provincial subsidy (in lieu of income tax), rents, provincial relief grants and $7,400 profit from the water and light departments amounted to $16,000. That is the equivalent of over six mills of the tax-rate, and it was not collected from property-owners as such. In addition, a substantial portion of the money raised through the mill rate was on business assessment and on factory assessment, sources of revenue which should be as much for the benefit of non-property-owners as of property-owners.

SATURDAY NIGHTS NECESSARY?

Newmarket merchants might well consider closing their stores on Saturdays at 6 p.m. from now until spring. With help becoming more difficult to obtain and hold, the long Saturday is becoming a strain. During the winter months there are no country people who could not do their shopping on Saturday afternoons. When spring and summer comes, many farmers will want to spend all their daylight hours on the land, but until then the merchants might save labor and electricity and keep themselves in trim for perhaps more difficult conditions yet to come.

The merchants have less goods to sell and it is logical to shorten the hours for selling them.

IF PLAN IS A SUCCESS --

Whether or not Newmarket town council is to make a grant toward a V. O. N. nurse remains to be settled. The grant should not be made with the idea that the grant asked for will be less next year, as suggested at last week's council meeting. The grant can be made with the knowledge that it can be discontinued at any time if it proves an unsatisfactory investment, but if it proves satisfactory, and the citizens are pleased, it would not be unreasonable to ask the council to make a larger rather than a smaller investment. As Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales said recently, the time might come when Newmarket would be glad to have two municipal nurses.

The right way to start, however, is with a small investment. Acton, Milton and Georgetown are considering employing a public health nurse, with a salary of $1,500 and a car allowance of $500. Each municipality will bear a third of the cost and in addition furnish suitable nursing quarters.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

(Under this heading are published articles believed to express a thought-provoking viewpoint, but not necessarily a viewpoint with which the editorial columns would agree.)

DEFEATING THE "DEMON"

(Fort Erie Times-Review)

Touching a more important aspect of the matter, time alone will tell whether more good than harm will result from Mr. King's yielding to the unrelenting pressure of the many highly-organized groups in this country who would abolish the use of alcoholic beverages. One thing is certain: unless one of the immemorial habits of mankind is due to undergo a very sudden and radical change, there will continue to be a demand for beer from those who are accustomed to its use.

If what they regard as their reasonable desires cannot be satisfied through legal channels, illegal facilities are almost sure to be provided. The opportunity to make easy money, even when it means violating the law and risking the consequences of detection, has always proved irresistible to a certain type of unscrupulous person.

Always in the past, drastic curtailment, or the complete cessation of the legal sale of alcoholic beverages has re-established the bootlegger, the blind pig and the rum runner in their illicit activities—with rot-gut whisky, bath-tub gin, canned heat, wood alcohol and re-distilled antifreeze replacing the beer and liquor which had been produced formerly under government supervision. That is not theory; neither is it a defence of the "liquor interests." It has all happened before.

That similar restrictions on legal drinking today will be unattended by the same evils as in the past is an assumption which has yet to be justified.

MUNICIPAL TAXATION

(Orillia Packet and Times)

In addressing the council of the county of Ontario last week, the Hon. Gordon Conant, according to the report in the Oshawa Times, "placed upon municipal administrations responsibility for the burden of taxation on real property."

In support of his contention, the prime minister pointed to the fact that whereas the province paid over to the municipalities more than $7 million dollars during the period between 1935 and 1941, the tax levies of all municipalities had decreased by only 3.44 percent. "It is difficult to escape the conclusion," Mr. Conant is quoted as saying, "that in relieving the municipalities they have simply increased expenditures in other directions."

The address would appear to indicate that Mr. Conant has little comprehension of the difficult problem that faces municipal bodies, brought about, to a large extent, by the fact that the province had laid too heavy burdens on real estate. Take some Orillia municipal statistics for the period covered by Mr. Conant's figures, for instance. Between 1935 and 1941, the population in Orillia increased from 8,662 to 9,416, or by 8.3 percent. During the same six years, the taxable assessment went up from $4,827,850 to $4,905,326, or by only 1.6 percent. For a number of years there has been a steady decline in the ratio of assessment to population. Thus in 1929 the assessment per capita in Orillia was $597.95; in 1942, it had dropped to $520.88. In the interval, every year but one showed some decrease. In other words, assessment failed to keep pace with population by nearly $750,000.

What is the reason for this? Simply that the population is crowding into the houses already available. Large houses are being turned into apartments and smaller houses are renting rooms. To a large extent this is the result of high taxation. People, even well-to-do people, cannot afford to pay a high rental for living in their own property. And in many cases municipal taxation does amount to a high rent. It is not a healthy condition. Public policy should be based on the principle of encouraging people to own their homes, with ample ground around them, and to take a pride in making them comfortable, spacious and beautiful.

As a consequence of the increased population, and for other reasons, the cost of education has increased substantially. In 1935, the school rate was abnormally low in Orillia. But between 1936 and 1941 the levies for school purposes increased from $67,061 to $89,082, or by almost exactly a third. Yet in the same period the levies for general purposes decreased from $86,339 to $81,555. This, it is to be remembered, is independent of relief levies.

During these seven years, the council refrained from adding to the debt, with the result that the net debt (the part of debt met by taxes) was reduced from $636,309 to $312,244, or by more than half. This reduced the debenture rate from 8.8 mills to 3.6 mills. Plainly, Orillia council has been trying to practise economy.

Thus the tax rate was brought down from 50 mills in 1935 and 54.5 mills in 1936 to 42.5 mills in 1941 and 44.5 mills in 1942. But it is still much too high. Twenty years ago the tax rate was just about half this. And it certainly should not exceed 30 mills. As it is, because of the drop in real estate values the assessment is often higher than the selling value. Moreover, because rents fell during the depression, and now are frozen, property owners are called upon to meet the whole rise in the cost of municipal administration.

All of which supports the contention of the Packet and Times that, for the information of the prime minister and his colleagues, a royal commission should be appointed to study the whole subject of municipal taxation, with a view to revising the system so as to broaden its basis and make it more equitable.

Of People And Things

FLAGS

By Isabel Inglis Colville

In peacetime we think of flag more as a decoration. Their presence in certain places at certain times, means certain things, but they are taken for granted, like so many things in peacetime, and have no special appeal. But when war comes, we become flag-conscious—the flag is a symbol, it seems to embody the gathering together of our emotions, our emotions and our aspirations.

When we look at our flag in peacetime—if we are ever really conscious of it—we think, "It's a nice flag, we should be proud of it," and let it go at that. But when in wartime it waves proudly above us, we begin to think about it and reflect that it stands for all the best things we have in life.

Where it flies men have enjoyed freedom of speech, freedom to worship as they will, and freedom to shape their own destinies.

It is sad to say it did not always stand for freedom from want and freedom from fear. We humans learn slowly and it seems to have taken this war to make the whole mass of people as well as the powers that be, realize that those two freedoms, as well as being necessary to the well-being and happiness of man, can be made possible.

Our Empire's flag with its three crosses seems so beautifully to typify the things for which we are struggling. The cross symbolizes the greatest thing that ever happened to humanity—the supreme sacrifice which has brought us everything worth while in the world.

Wherever the cross has gone, there has followed something of Christ. It may be a pitifully inadequate something, but it cannot help but shed some light into the dark places. The cross of St. George still flies over those who fight the dragons of evil which men create. The cross of St. Andrew still typifies the spirit which will suffer crucifixion, before it will condone the things which pervert the best in man, and St. Patrick's cross reminds us that good can overcome evil for all time. And the thistle, shamrock and rose tell us that ruggedness, eternal youth and beauty must be the portion, eventually, of the lands which keep as their ideal what the cross stands for. We Canadians have added the maple leaf and beaver, fitting symbols of lasting beauty and industry.

Not all flags fittingly show forth the aspirations of their peoples, but like ours, the Star Spangled Banner seems to represent the spirit of its people—we think of the high aspirations of the republic to the south, as seen in the stars and the bars seem to signify the desire of the nation to exclude whatever interferes with its people's desire for higher things. The fleur de lis of France under its kings, signified purity of government and purpose. I suppose the lily banner was lost because the monarchs and people never lived up to their flag. It was replaced by the tricolor, which, I suppose, told of liberty, equality and fraternity, and when these were ignored the flag fell, to be replaced by the lilies of Lorraine.

Hitler has taken a crooked cross for his emblem—he has perverted everything the real cross stands for. He and his followers have shown themselves as crooked as their flag. For all time the swastika will be the symbol of shame.

Who can say what influence a flag has on those who march, live, work, hope and worship beneath it.

If we follow ours, we will have the courage of St. George, the steadfastness of St. Andrew, the humanity of St. Patrick, and the industry of the beaver. Now is our time of testing—for finding out if we are worthy of our flag.

25 YEARS AGO

From Era and Express files, Feb. 8, 1918

The old cheese factory on Huron St. has been used for two or three years as a creamery. The business of the creamery was moved to the old clothing factory on Prospect St. on Monday.

It is time the belated January thaw made its appearance.

Owing to the orders of the Union government at the request of the fuel controller, all places of business that use coal for fuel will be closed on Saturday and Monday, with the exception of drug stores, dental parlors, and offices and municipal buildings. Violators of this order are subject to a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment. The order does not affect the post office, market or telephone business. Grocery stores and banks will be open only in the mornings.

A number of the business men met at the council chambers on Tuesday evening to discuss the post question as a means of solving the fuel shortage. Correspondence was produced to show that rent existed on the Holland Marsh in large quantities.

The mercury dipped down to 20 below zero again last Friday morning. The bear saw his shadow last Saturday and five weeks of winter weather may be expected yet.

The case of the Dawson boy against the Wm. Cane factory for the loss of an arm was dismissed as the jury decided Dawson was culpably negligent. Dawson sued for $5,000.

Last Friday afternoon and night the first real snowstorm of the season raged. The passenger train from the south was two hours late and the one from the north nearly three hours.

Department of Labour National War Labour Board General Order

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics has found that the cost of living index number for January 2, 1943, is 117.1 (adjusted index 116.2) as compared with the cost of living index number for July 2, 1942, of 117.9 (adjusted index 117).

The Wartime Wages Control Order, P. C. 5963, provides in Section 48 (iv):

"the amount of the bonus shall not be changed unless the cost of living index number has changed one whole point or more since the last general order of the Board requiring an increase or decrease in the amount thereof."

The index number not having changed by one whole point or more since July 2, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of P. C. 5963 as stated, the National War Labour Board orders that the terms of its General Order dated August 4, 1942, shall continue to apply for the period February 15, 1943, to May 15, 1943, subject to the right of employers or employees to apply to a War Labour Board for authorization of payment of such an amount of cost of living bonus as a Board may determine to be "fair and reasonable," under the provisions of the Order.

MAPLE LEAF FOREVER BROUGHT ONLY $50

The first meeting of the Newmarket Home and School Association in the Alexander Muir school, two weeks ago, was made the occasion of a short account of the great composer's life. Mrs. N. L. Mathews, the president, called on Mrs. H. E. Gilroy, a granddaughter of Alexander Muir.

"Alexander Muir came as a small boy from Scotland at four years of age," said Mrs. Gilroy. "His family settled in Scarborough. His father was a teacher and he became a teacher."

"He was teaching at Leslieville, now Queen and Pape Sts., when he read in a Montreal publication about a contest for a patriotic poem. He had written his first poem and set it to music when he was 15, and a friend advised him to enter the contest."

"He was walking along with another friend when a maple leaf fluttered down on the friend's coat, and the friend said: 'There's your subject, Alex.' So he wrote 'The Maple Leaf Forever' and received the second prize of $50. That is the only money he ever received for 'The Maple Leaf.'

"It was first sung publicly after he came to this town, at a gathering at the Christian church. There is a picture of him in the hall of this school and a tablet in his memory. I had the honor of unveiling the tablet in 1908 when I was a pupil at this school."

Mrs. Mathews then invited those present to stand and sing the familiar anthem.

UNION STREET W. I. Sends $10 To Russian Relief Fund

The Women's Institute held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Miss Violet Micks on Feb. 4.

The president, Mrs. T. Swanson, conducted the meeting, which opened with the Institute ode and creed.

The roll-call was answered by "A notable event in the past year." The minutes were read and approved. Letters were read from Laurie Facey and Fred Mahoney acknowledging the Christmas parcels sent to them by the Institute.

Mrs. D. Beckett read a paper on the wartime prices and trade board. It was decided that a donation of $10 be sent to the Russian relief fund. Mrs. Roy Cowieson gave an interesting paper on Canadianization. Mrs. D. Beckett gave the remainder of the report. Current events were given by Mrs. D. Thompson.

The Women's Institute are having a Valentine box social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Callendar on Monday at 8 p.m. A good program is being arranged for the evening.

Mrs. Frank Graham is ill.

They Came Just As He Was Going On Leave

Sgmn. Arthur Cox writes to the Newmarket Veterans to thank them for cigarettes sent to him. He says: "Just a few lines to let you know I received your kind gift of cigarettes. I received them several weeks ago and I am just now getting around to acknowledging them. They came in very handy at the time, as I was just going on seven days' leave and I was quite low on cigarettes."

"We had quite a good Christmas over here, a very good Christmas dinner and everything to our wishes. The only thing I missed was the snow."

THEY KEEP BERGEN BUSY

What with sponsoring Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd, chasing rare butterflies, deceiving Indian chiefs and making love to Ginny Simms, Edgar Bergen is indeed a busy person in RKO Radio's "Here We Go Again," a mirthful mélange that unites Bergen and Charlie with Fibber McGee and Molly in the top billing—with a host of radio greats in support.

Gathering the Sport Facts

The American Bowling Congress reports that there are nearly 16,000,000 active participants in the game. This figure includes both the United States and Canada. In Toronto alone there are an estimated 100,000 followers. Recently in Detroit, when six bowlers rolled perfect games a club was formed to record these accomplishments. In more than two months since the club was organized, not one man has been able to add his name to the roster. Bowling is one sport that is certainly catching on with the fans.

Bill Terry spent 20 years with the New York Giants as a player, manager and farm club supervisor. One thing Toronto Maple Leaf fans can be thankful to him for is that he almost gave them Burgess Whitehead last year. Whitehead was close to being the best second baseman that Toronto has ever had. Certainly he was top dog at the position since Joe Morrissey left the club in 1933. Lee McPhail paid only $4,000 for him. Dirt cheap at the price. Now Mr. Terry has the inside track for the managership of the Dodgers, if Leo Durocher goes into some branch of the U. S. forces. People are wondering if the Dodger fans will forget that crack that Terry made about their team. Remember, when Terry asked the sports writers, "are the Dodgers still in the league?" And lost a pennant by doing it.

A University of Michigan basketball star recently made 43 points in a single game. He scored 19 out of 34 shots at the basket and then sank five free throws to really have a field day for himself.

In all the years that Gene Tunney spent in the ring he was never knocked out. This is a record that not even Sgt. Joe Louis can claim. Max Schmeling knocked him kicking once. Remember.

'Round Our Town

Here are the three star selections, picked from last Thursday's game between Orillia and Newmarket. The three star award entitles Newmarket camp players to a pass to the Strand theatre through the courtesy of the management.

Star No. 1 goes to Tommy Stewart, right-winger on the local club. Tommy is the lightest and smallest member of the camp team. Stands only 5'3" and weighs 135 lbs. Tommy was born in Penetang but has played all his hockey, until this year, with Midland Intermediates. For the past six years he has been a member of that club. Last year he led the club in scoring. He and McMaster, his line-mate on one of the camp's forward lines, form one of the smartest attacking duos in the group.

Our second star goes to Dick Craig, left-winger on the Orillia camp team. Craig is a lieutenant on the staff at the Orillia camp. Craig went well all night, and tried hard in a losing cause. He seemed to be able to hold his own with any member of the local team and provided quite a bit of excitement for the fans when he engaged in fistfights with Nick Bangay in the third period. Craig is only 25 years old and was born in Paisley, Ontario. He played for University of Toronto teams in the O.H.A. before graduating from that school of learning. When he wasn't studying, Craig played for a commercial league team at Varsity arena.

Our third star goes to Jack Wheeler of the Newmarket team. Wheeler is a great rushing defenseman. According to many old-timers he's the best that this town has seen for years. Wheeler is one player who gives everything he has during a game. Honorable mention goes to McMaster and Nesbitt of the Redmen. An old-timer, Rome, in the Orillia nets played a bang-up game.

Bob Peters handled the game last Thursday night. One thing we can't understand is why the O.H.A. has been sending a referee up here when there's one here in town who can do just as good a job. Of course, Bob hasn't as big a reputation as Jack Bennett but in our opinion he handled a better game.

With gas rationing and all train travelling curtailed, your correspondent hopes that Bob gets more work here in town. With the temperature about 40 above Johnny Frew froze his toe playing with the Newmarket team last Thursday night. We don't know how he did it but that's his story.

If we were giving three stars for fighting, Nick Bangay would get them all. Buck Private Bangay sure landed a dandy on the nose of Lieut. Dick Craig. The blood ran for at least five minutes after.

Although it isn't definitely settled there's more than a possibility that the strong H.M.C.S. York senior team from Toronto will come to town. If present plans materialize they will play an exhibition game with the camp intermediate team. The military camp has 11 days between their last schedule game and the start of the play-offs.

The executive of the team has been in communication with the heads of the navy club. The only hitch right now is setting a date which will fit in with the plans of both clubs. Bill Wilson and Hughie Mair, who are just about tops in the Toronto senior group, will be on hand with the team. Both of them are eager to show their talents in front of the home town folks.

The game will also give Newmarket the chance of seeing Bob Goldham, late of the Maple Leafs, in action.

Perhaps by that time Gaye Stewart, rookie sensation of the National Hockey League, will be in the navy.

Food for War

PRESERVED, PACKED AND SHIPPED

Farmers, fishermen and stock-raisers would labour in vain to supply food to the United Nations, were it not for the added labour of those who prepare, preserve, pack and ship the food.

Thousands of Canadian men and women are doing a most necessary job of converting live and raw products to usable, transportable food for millions of fighting men and civilians overseas. In estimating the value of various tasks in the total war effort, much credit should be given to the workers in the canning, dehydration, curing, picking, refrigerating and shipping industries.

"Bacon for Britain"? Yes, but also canned salmon and dried fruits and evaporated milk for Britain and our allies overseas.

EARLIER COPY
now becomes necessary

Another member of The Era and Express staff begins service with the armed forces on Monday, leaving two men on the composing-room staff. It is apparently not possible to secure an experienced printer as a replacement.

The Era and Express is fortunate in having a number of capable young women on its staff, but there are many jobs about a printing shop beyond the strength and mechanical experience of women.

The public will appreciate that this means increased difficulty in handling job printing and publishing the newspaper. Deadlines will have to be moved back. Press correspondents who want material published will have to send it in at the earliest possible time, bearing in mind that typesetting for each week's paper begins on the previous Friday morning.

Job printing customers can help by anticipating their requirements and avoiding rush orders.

The universal kingdom to be established on the ruins of the kingdoms of men at Christ's return has its foundation in God's covenant with Abraham and will be the kingdom of Israel restored. They shall be gathered to Jesus Christ, to return and save them from their oppressors. Acts 1: 6-11; 21: 1-13; Gal. 3: 16-29; Luke 21: 21.

The Woman's Association of Trinity United church have decided to forego the usual anniversary supper this year on the occasion of the 119th anniversary services.

Artists from No. 23 basic training centre, from Aurora and some good talent secured locally will provide excellent entertainment for Monday evening, Feb. 15. Members of His Majesty's forces will be admitted free.

SUTTONITES CLICK TO DEFEAT BEAVERTON

Sutton's juvenile hockey team handed Beaverton their second defeat of the season at Sutton arena Friday night by a score of 10-4.

Holder, in the Sutton net for the first time, turned in a fine performance. Keith Dunne, former goalie, teamed with Rex Sedore to make a hard-hitting defence.

Beaverton, although beaten by six goals, were better than the score would indicate.

The initial period saw the Sutton squad put on a strong offensive which netted them three goals, one by Joe Holborn and two by his brother, George, one on a pass from Andy Loneragan.

Loneragan made it 4-0 from close in. Reid scored 15 seconds later on a tricky play from close in. Reid scored again on a pass from John-to, making it 4-2.

Andy Loneragan scored again for Sutton. Keith Dunne made it 6-2 on a long shot. Geo. Holborn kated through the defence but missed, Loneragan batting in the rebound.

In the final period Rex Sedore, Sutton defenceman, took Loneragan's pass to score. Johnston took a pass from Reid to score (8-3). Loneragan and Smith were penalized for fighting. Reid scored for the visitors (8-4). Ross Welch and Dave Burrows accounted for the last two Sutton goals (10-4).

The game was ably handled by Cec. Carpenter.

ST. PAUL'S LADIES WILL HEAR SISTER FROM KOREA
The veterans attended the evening service at St. Paul's Anglican church on Sunday and, in spite of the storm, there was a good turnout.

This afternoon the Woman's Auxiliary are having a missionary address at their monthly devotion and business meeting, and will work in Korea. Sister Faith of the community of St. Peter is the speaker. Sister Faith and another member of the Ode were on their way home to England, having just escaped from Korea in time, when on arrival they were greeted with the news that their country home in England had been bombed, so that such time as suitable accommodation could be provided, they are living with the Sisters of St. John-of-the-Hill.

"The Ladies Aid held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Bosworth on Monday. It looks as if the annual chicken picnic supper will have to be cancelled for this year, since so many necessary funds are not available."

Commissions On Town's Insurance Explained

Representing a Toronto insurance broker, Stanley Magee explained to the town council at its meeting last week how his firm divided commissions among the town's casualty insurance men.

The commissions paid out amount to approximately 15 per cent of the premium on the town's insurance, but varies from year to year. Mr. Magee explained. Last year, when there was more rain than in most years, the total was $26,225.

The town has only two full-time casualty insurance men, F. A. Lundy and J. L. R. Bell, and they receive larger shares of the commission than part-time casualty men. Mr. Magee said, "We have handled the insurance for ten years," said Mr. Magee.

"The commissions are based on the insurance the agents held at that time."

DOWN THE CENTRE

Bob Benville writes from the Pacific coast to tell us that B.C. has been experiencing some unusual winter weather, "necessitating woolies and things, quite unusual." Robert encloses some clippings about the Vancouver senior hockey league, which show Navy in front followed closely by Army, and R.C.A.F. in the third slot. Two civilian teams bring up the rear.

"Ran into Jimmy Lowe last week and he sends you his regards. Jimmy is playing good hockey for the air force, but I still put my money on Navy," says Bob. Noticed among the players such boys as Deslondes (Canadiens), Doug Verity (Omaha), Elmer Kreller (Rangers), "Chuck" Rayner (Americans), Dave MacKay (Hawks), Bill Carse (Hawks) Labovitch (New Haven), Kirk (Hershey), Melnyk (Cleveland), King (Fort Worth), among others, which indicates the calibre of the hockey.

Dan VanClief, who played for Aurora juniors in 1931-32, the last year Aurora bucked Newmarket juniors, is playing a bang-up game with Petawawa Grenades in the Ottawa Valley league this season. VanClief came here from Huntsville and took any kind of employment he could get, something far from hockey imports those years. He was not too fast but a wonderful stick handler and checker. Later he played with Gravenhurst, Midland and Sudbury, and developed into a first-rate forward.

Father and son are not a common occurrence in hockey, but we noticed one night this year at Aurora arena that both dad and son were in action. Ken Rose, for many years an Aurora stalwart, played defence for Sisman's in the town league, while in the midwest prelude Gene Rose played for the high school juniors. Both were stars for their teams at that "Young Rascals" once he puts on a bit of weight and grows a bit will be as good as dad ever was. At least, we hope so.

Eric White, the former North York "Lionel Conacher," now located in Fergus, is not playing hockey this season but is giving his time to midwest hockey. Sixty boys, ranging from 10 to 16, are playing in a four-club league in Thistletown. "Rusty," who in our opinion was the greatest athlete ever developed in Richmond Hill and perhaps the best all-around performer ever seen in North York, is a fine sportsman and the type of fellow who will spend lots of time with the kids. He was a top star at lacrosse and was almost as good at basketball, hockey, track, soccer and baseball. Hee McKenzie of Alliston, who played some good lacrosse for Bradford a few years back, is also assisting with the league.

Alf Barber, who played hockey for Kingsway and then junior C with Aurora in 1940-41, has joined the Canadian navy and has seen action already on a Canadian corvette.

Allen Broadway, the deaf and dumb lad who played some fine hockey for Markham juniors for several years despite his handicap, has accepted a war-time position in Toronto and will likely see some hockey action. He was rejected for active service last year.

"Ginger" Hall, who plugged the gap in goal for Sutton Greenshirts last winter, and perhaps more than any other player was responsible for the Lake Simcoe village going through to a title, sustained a broken hand at his war work recently and will see no more hockey action this year. He was again starring in Toronto mercantile hockey.

Barrie has organized a figure skating club under the direction of Pte. Joe Ebbelby of Camp Borden, former instructor at Owen Sound. It is one of the few natural ice skating clubs in Ontario and already has a membership of over 100. Newmarket and Aurora are both ripe for similar action. L-Cpl. Francis of Newmarket camp, along with the former Olympic beauty, Mrs. Edward Gooderham (Cecil Eustace Smith), drew a big hand a few weeks ago in a hockey match intermission act, while both Aurora and Newmarket saw figure skating last year attract good crowds. Francis, if he is stationed in Newmarket for a while, would probably lend a hand there, while Mrs. Don Rogers of Aurora and Sammy Jarvis might be persuaded to lend assistance in Aurora, although Mr. Jarvis is not at home a great deal.

Municipal arenas continue to grow. A movement is under way at Glencoe, Ont., for the municipality to take over the rink. Lawyer Bill Moss, an old friend of ours, is heading the citizens' committee.

Newcomers to the local intermediate group in the Brampton-Orillia clash last week were: Art Rome, heavyweight goalie of the Orillia team, and probably the oldest player in the circuit. Rome, who hails from Niagara Falls, played goal there and at Stratford, Capreol and points north. For a big man he is very fast and despite an absence of ten years from active competition has a keen pair of eyes and hands.

Frank Moroz of Hamilton, brother of rugbyist Bernie Moroz, and himself a fair footballer as well as hockeyist, centred the Brampton second line and added strength to the team.

Bill Lewis, who hails from Owen Sound and had a limited hockey career, was another forward addition but did not show very much.

Bruce Burkhardt, member of a well-known family and with experience in junior and senior O.H.A. strengthened the defence but had the unfortunate faculty of underestimating the opposition at times and leaving the path to Abram's cage wide open. He is a smart performer, however, and with more practice would be one of the best in the group.

Elizabeth Snively of Lake Wilcox, one of Ontario's top women skaters, finished third in the Laurierian invitation meet last week, only a scant few points behind the front two. She was a member of the eastern Canada team last winter, and belongs to the Toronto Ski club at Summit.

School vs. hockey is a favorite topic this year. Principals of both the Aurora schools dislike the idea of their students playing at night but at Markham high principal Earl Thom has really laid down the law. "Any student who comes home from school without books and reports he has no work to do is guilty of a glaring untruth. There is no place in our classes for boys who say they didn't do their homework because they had to play hockey. Surely parents do not feel that hockey until 10 or 11 at night for boys 14 or 15 can take the place of an education." A well-rounded education requires to our way of thinking a fair amount of athletics, and likewise a hockey career needs grey matter.

Cpl. Johnny Frew, according to all reports, has fitted in nicely with the Newmarket camp team during a player shortage, and will be mighty hard to dislodge from a regular spot. In 1935 Frew was imported by Barrie to play with the Colts but didn't like conditions there and went back to play with Marlboros and mercantile. He is equally handy on defence or the forward line.

We salute as team of the week Aces of the Aurora town league,

Norm. Legge of Newmarket is coming along nicely on the forward line and has been picking up a few scoring points.

Harry Davis, last year a member of the St. Andrew's junior B team, where his father is cricket and boxing coach, still of junior age, has been a real addition to the squad and is right now one of the best prospects for the future. Is employed on war work.

Alf Watson, former Newmarket high all-round athlete and a member of C Coy. Queen's Yorks, has worked hard in every game and looks better too. Tried to get on active service but was a low-category man. Harold Botham, the Mount Pleasant flash and a swell fellow, completes the squad along with Eddie Tedman, now with the R.C.A.F. Both boys are dribblers if not brilliant players. Roy Middlebrook, the square of Walnut Grove and one of the best apartment men have ever met, is backer of the team and is only worried about being some of his players to the armed forces. Roy has a long history of generosity to the athletes of North York.

Via Giovanni, skate sharpener de luxe, and chief footman of the current and undefeated league leaders, as we write this.

Doug Hope from Pine Orchard guards the goal, and for a lad who has neither junior nor intermediate experience, is turning in a fine game. He is not spectacular but goes about the business of stopping pucks quietly and we suspect a bit nervously.

Cliff Gunn, former Newmarket junior, is the head defenceman and playing a sturdy game both ways. He is developing into a fine intermediate performer and looks fast or than in junior.

"Duke" Dennis, a player with Aurora juniors, then Newmarket, and last year with King, is travelling at a terrific clip these days. The Duke either powdered the ball or struck-out on the softball diamond. It is the same way when he shoots on goal.

Myles MacInnis, one of the best juniors developed in North York, has been on defence but can work equally as well at any forward position. As he showed earlier this year, he is definitely of junior calibre and has size, brains and ability.

"Whitely" Bone, former junior ace, has been used but sparingly, but if he gets in shape again can just about start from where he left off in organized hockey. A bullet shot and stiff checker.

Harvey Gibney, a district favorite for years at softball and hockey looks as good as ever. Last year a member of Sutton Greenshirts, and discharged honorably from the army. Equally good on defence or forward.

Brothers on the team find two sets. The Taylors, Norm, and Charlie, hail from Oak Ridge and are playing better hockey than anybody expected they could. Both were used infrequently by King last year, and Norm had a bit of junior hockey with Aurora. Charlie has been inclined to have a chip on his shoulder this winter and has been in one or two squabbles.

The Prestons, a trio act with Walter, Clarence and Harvey performing. The boys will answer if you shout "Buck," "Bub" and "Josh." "Buck," the eldest, has been out since the first game with an injured ankle. "Bub" has turned in a fair effort wherever placed, but "Josh," who walks two miles to every game and is just turned 19, is the most potent of the trio.

Norm Legge of Newmarket is coming along nicely on the forward line and has been picking up a few scoring points.

Harry Davis, last year a member of the St. Andrew's junior B team, where his father is cricket and boxing coach, still of junior age, has been a real addition to the squad and is right now one of the best prospects for the future. Is employed on war work.

Alf Watson, former Newmarket high all-round athlete and a member of C Coy. Queen's Yorks, has worked hard in every game and looks better too. Tried to get on active service but was a low-category man. Harold Botham, the Mount Pleasant flash and a swell fellow, completes the squad along with Eddie Tedman, now with the R.C.A.F. Both boys are dribblers if not brilliant players. Roy Middlebrook, the square of Walnut Grove and one of the best apartment men have ever met, is backer of the team and is only worried about being some of his players to the armed forces. Roy has a long history of generosity to the athletes of North York.

Via Giovanni, skate sharpener de luxe, and chief footman of the team, is the number one booster. Vic has been a faithful executive of both Aurora and Newmarket teams and has given freely of his time and car. Can be depended upon to stick to the end. It is a treat to hear his pep talks and see him in action with his sharpener.

Beat the Aces! is the cry of the other teams in the league and we know at least three managers who think they'd do just that in the play-offs. Actions speak louder than words, however, and these same Aces will enter the play-offs as favorites.

Brampton Camp, after two losing home matches, have pulled out of Aurora and taken their remaining games to Georgetown. The main reason is that Georgetown is less than 20 miles from Brampton, and one of the big reasons for the team's failure to date has been lack of concentrated vocal support. Then, too, it should be easier for the boys to get some needed in-door practice there. "Aurora has a dandy rink, better than most towns, and we are sorry to leave, as I believe we would have drawn some good games if we make the play-offs," Lieut. "Bling" Caswell told the writer.

The gates were not good for two reasons. Aurora fans by past history support a winner to the last buck, but when a team is only doing so-so it is only the diehards you can find. Those two losses to Newmarket camp by wide margins were noted by the local fans, and reacted on the gate with Orillia. When Brampton practically tossed the game away to the northerners, even many of the regulars at the arena were a bit disgusted.

"We can see better hockey in the town league," commented some. We do find it hard, however, to explain the absence of many of the town's business men and officials who never even paid a courtesy call to the Brampton boys. Many of the boys, however, are sorry to see the soldiers leave, but with hundreds of the men of No. 21 being able to go to Georgetown to see the games but not to Aurora, we believe that it is a good move for them. Georgetown has no hockey being played there of any account this winter.

At the present stage, unless Mr. Caswell can put some zings into his boys, they will not reach the play-offs. They lack a really hard shot on the team, need practice, and one or two more players. Why Day, for instance, who has failed to show a thing in two games and has been responsible for at least two goals for the opposition, has held a place for more than we can guess. We extend best wishes to a fine bunch of boys, who put training first and hockey second and who have been having an up-hill fight. In Abram and Seaton they have shown two of the best in the league.

"Buck" Abbott has thrown in his lot with the Midland Shipbuilders rather than with Penetang juniors and will finish the season in higher company. Chances are if Midland is eliminated he will somehow or other find his way back to the junior ranks.

Bryan, another lad of junior age, who has turned up in Midland from the north country is a recent addition to Jack Rutherford's team.

Meet the team. We present a thumbnail review of the Orillia camp team who have stamped themselves as one of the best in the league after a late start, and will be tough to take from now on. Murny Frewall, who answers to the name of "Frank," is the goal understudy to Art Rome whom we mentioned earlier. Pearsall is a civilian and a member of the Grey-Simcoe reserve unit at Orillia. Has played all his hockey in Orillia and is a capable performer. K. Jennings, formerly of the Hollinger club, and Sandy Melvor are also available for duty giving them a strong quartet.

Elvin Taghlabael (one word), formerly of Soo Rapids Juniors, is one of the best defencemen in the circuit. Fast on the attack and dangerous in close. Along with McMaster and Wynanski of the Newmarket team, he gives the Soo some hockey limelight.

Leo Beaudin, from northern Ontario, formerly played for Niagara college. A bit light but a corner.

Ernie Curran, an Orillia boy, brother known for his lacrosse prowess, where as "Balsins" Curran he was one of the best in the game. A good checker and general handyman.

Robert Gordon, Orillia red-headed centre, from Orillia, where he played all his previous hockey. A smart pivot operator and very dangerous.

John Reid, right wing. Hails from Orillia, where he played junior B hockey and had a brief whirl with Generals. One of the fastest men in the league and getting his shooting eye sharpened. George Norrington, left wing. Another Orillia boy. Has a dandy shot and breaks fast. One of the top scorers in the top. Played juvenile and junior B previous to this season.

Lawrence McKay, centre, a gift from South Porcupine juniors, and a good one, too. Plays heads-up hockey all the way and is a fine forechecker.

Leat. Mac, Crig, slightly bald, left-winger, centred about the best left-winger in the circuit. Knows the game from A to Z. Clavert stickhandler, and deadly marksman. Played in Toronto with Varsity, and in senior commercial. A former team-mate of Lieut. "Bling" Caswell.

C. Stephenson, right wing, from Niagara Falls where he played junior hockey. A fine team player, and smart puck-curler. Holds his wing well, and is better each time out. C. Walman of Port Hope juniors, general utility man and yet to see action but ready for duty when called on.

Capt. Bruce Saunders, sports officer and former Varsity athlete, is manager of the team and a keen student of the game. Can uphold his own in any debating society.

Tim Mulligan is listed as coach and along with Capt. Saunders directs the play. Has not played hockey for quite a few years but is up-to-date in his tactics.

Morris Applebaum is trainer and press agent combined, and does a swell job at both. Is sold on the idea Orillia will win the team. Team lost first two starts, but appears headed for better things. Are practising faithfully in Epplet's arena and are expecting the arrival of a top-flight defenceman to replace Carl Wagner, who was lost to the team after the first game. Drawing a fair crowd at Orillia. The series to come with Midland should be a dandy.

Cecil Dillon, former New York Ranger, now back home at Thornbury, Ont., is coaching Collingwood intermediates this year, and has them looking better since he took charge than they were at the start of the season. May return to the game himself if the going gets any tougher.

Max Freeman, who played with Markham juniors a couple of seasons ago, is now stationed at Souris, Man., with the army.

Ross Waddell, the former Aurora goalie, who was with Oshawa Generals as regular custodian last winter and started off this season in the nets, then to alternate with Ernie Bennett from Regina, has not been seen in goal for the Gen's for some weeks. Perhaps he has received an army call, as he is 19 and in his last year of junior hockey. If not, Charlie Conacher is taking no chances, as Bennett is but 17 years of age, and has been creating quite an impression around the A circuit. It is nothing strange to see goalies replaced at Oshawa. Colvin and McManus alternated a few years back, then Dick Schlad from Markham came along to oust McManus, and in turn Waddell stole the regular job from Schlad. So if Ross has been replaced it's only history repeating itself.

Negotiations have just about been completed by Lieut. Dave Matheson of Newmarket camp to bring navy seniors to Oshawa to give his white hopes the acid test. The game is a natural and should attract a large crowd, with homebrows and former Aurora juniors, Billy Wilson and Scotty Muir, with the Tars. Bill is still leading the senior snipers, while Hughie is also well up in the target practice. George Mara, former U.C.C. player, well-known in these parts, along with Doug McLeod of last year's Markham team (the lad who bopped Mervyn Doughton), are also with Navy as well as a host of other stars headed by ex-Leaf Hob Goldman and Bud LaMarche, senior goalie de luxe. Stan Smith should be able to hand out the S.R.O. sign for that one.

The camp finish their regular schedule this week, and while they cannot be ousted from first place in the group, will have to remain idle until the group finishes on Feb. 18 and the play-offs start the week following. Aurora team leagues, who are eager to pick their O.H.A. entry, would be well advised to try and book a game with the camp too.

The single schedule, aside from speeding up the play-off and giving the Newmarket rink and all others assured play-off games was a nice break for the boys from No. 23, as a second series would not have drawn points.

Orchids to Bob Peters, who, we are informed, refereed a fine game in his O.H.A. debut of the season last week, and is definitely booked for more games. Robert is strict but impartial. Regular O.H.A. fees are $8 plus mileage.

Mount Albert, Feb. 4.—Mount Albert Horticultural Society held its annual banquet and meeting on Tuesday evening. About 65 sat down to a nice wartime supper.

John Clarke of the department of agriculture was the guest speaker. Mr. Clarke gave those present many good thoughts to carry home. He gave many reasons why horticultural societies should be carried on in wartime. The work of beautification done through the county should not be allowed to go back, he said. The boys who have gone overseas have seen the beauty of the old land where horticultural societies are still functioning through the war and the good work must be kept up at home. Mr. Clarke showed slides of all parts of Ontario which have been improved by the faithful band of horticulture workers. He advised those present to join not for what they get in premiums and prizes, but for the service they give to the community.

Roy Stewart contributed several fine solos, accompanied by Mrs. Couper at the piano.

During the year the society, which had 66 members, held a successful flower show in the fall and took care of several flower plots around the town, besides giving good options in the spring. There were 39 new members joined for this year at the meeting.

WHAT COULD BE NICER?
By GOLDEN GLOW

Nicer than what? Well, nicer than a lovely winter morning in February! Just like we had on Tuesday of this week! The bluest of blue skies, not a cloud to be seen, pure, clear air, and snow everywhere, sparkling like a Christmas card.

What could be nicer than a trip down Main St., meeting friends who greet you so cheerily, and who are interested in the same things that you are? And you step out, glad that the gloomy, stormy days we've had lately are past, that—well—maybe this old world of ours isn't such a bad place after all! And you look up at the sky, and wonder at its depth of azure blue, you look at the snow, and see it sparkle in the sunshine—you hear the glad shouts of the children, hear the birds, for once again bird-voices may be heard—and you finally become aware that a familiar couplet is running through your mind and when you concentrate you discover it is:

"What is so rare as a day in June—
Then if ever come perfect days," and you say to yourself, "Well, a day like this runs it a good second."

Everybody smiles at you as you go on down the street, those who know you stop for a chat. The starlings are making their peculiar whistling calls from the top of Trinity United. Sleighbells, so long a forgotten music, catch your ear, for we have gone back to horses and sleighs! I have you know! We have seen quite a few big splendid teams of horses this winter drawing big, old-time sleighs, and the horses act as if they were quite conscious of the fact that we can't get along without them—they arch their necks and jingle their bells, and step jauntily along as much as to say "You don't need ration books for us!"

You go a bit farther, meet another friend, and more smiles and pleasant words as you ask after her family and her special interest and are glad to tell of your own good health and spirits. It is a real tonic—a trip down Main St. a day like Tuesday!

You go into the post-office and get a handful of delightful mail—you can hardly wait to get home to read your letters!

You go down farther into your grocery store and everyone there has a smile and a cheery word. Somebody said, "You look pleased with yourself this morning!" and I answered "Why not? who wouldn't?" and we laugh together at nothing! Everything—even the grand winter fresh air sends a thrill through you, and your blood dances through your veins like quicksilver.

Back you go on your way home—the starlings are still calling from Trinity United—a voice calls you and says, "Wait, I'm coming across," and over a friend comes, across the street, to read a letter from her son overseas to you. A grand letter and it makes you glad for her sake!

On again, then you recall a roll to be taken to The Era and Express office, so you turn back and so up the steps to be greeted with more smiles, and as I came out one of the girls took a packet from Mr. Editor and handed it to me, and on getting home I discover it is a lovely calendar. My grateful thanks to you, Mr. Editor, for it is a unique, delightful calendar with 12 beautiful photographs of Picton and the Bay of Quinte and I'll take pleasure from it all year.

So here I am home on this gorgeous winter day and the sun is still shining, the sky is still that wonderful blue, the sparrows are calling me to come out and feed them. My neighbor's dog is also asking if I have a bone for it in the refrigerator. The snow does not sparkle as it did earlier on but it is not melting very much. It is a perfect winter day and one to be enjoyed.

Maybe our window-panes show a bit of grime; never mind, don't worry, it will soon be spring and we can attend to them later, just enjoy every minute of a day like this for they have not come our way very often so far this year.

If a robin came along begging for a hand-out I'd not be one bit surprised, for there is also that touch of spring we feel even on a winter day—a sort of promise of things to come.

Mrs. Eleanor E. Bonnell, Holland Landing, has received word that her husband, Lieut. Charles Ernest Bonnell, D.S.C., of the R.C.N.V.R., is missing. He has one daughter, Barbara, aged 11.

Lieut. Bonnell joined the service early in 1940. Since that time he has had more than one narrow escape from death.
